

When can adult leaders wear the BSA's Trained patch?

The BSA's Trained patch sends a clear message to Scouts, fellow Scouters and parents. It says, "I know what I'm doing."

So which adult leaders are eligible to wear this badge of honor? It depends on which program you're in, but there's one place every adult leader must start: with Youth Protection Training.

Adult leaders in units are considered trained and eligible to wear the official Trained emblem when they have completed Youth Protection Training and the training courses outlined below. They're also eligible to wear it if they have completed Youth Protection Training and a previous basic training course when it was current.

Here's everything you need to know about the BSA's Trained patch:

Who can wear the Trained strip?

- Registered adult leaders who have completed Youth Protection Training and the training courses for their program, which are outlined below.
- Scouts who have completed troop training and Venturers who have completed Crew Officers Orientation and Personal Safety Awareness training. Scouts and Venturers who have completed NYLT may wear this new patch instead of the trained patch if they wish.

What are the program-specific requirements?

These requirements are for adult leaders. The emblem may be worn only in connection with the emblem of office for which training has been completed. In other words, if you're an assistant Scoutmaster and a Venturing crew Advisor, but you've only taken training for the assistant Scoutmaster role, you would only wear the trained patch on your Boy Scout uniform — not on your Venturing uniform.

- Cub Scouting: Position-Specific training for your position. (Pack Trainers take Pack Committee Challenge and Fundamentals of Training.)
- Boy Scouting:
  - Scoutmasters and assistant Scoutmasters: Scoutmaster and Assistant Scoutmaster Position-Specific and Introduction to Outdoor Leader Skills
  - Troop committee members: Troop Committee Challenge
- Varsity Scouting:
  - Coaches and assistants: Varsity Coach Position-Specific and Introduction to Outdoor Leader Skills
  - Varsity committee members: Team Committee Challenge
- Venturing and Sea Scouts:
  - Advisors and assistants: Venturing Advisor Position-Specific
  - Crew and ship committee members: Crew Committee Challenge
  - All adults in ships: Sea Scout Adult Leader Basic
- Chartered organization representatives: This Is Scouting and Training the Chartered Organization Representative.

Which patch should I wear?

There are two versions: one with red letters and one with green letters. Either may be worn with any BSA uniform. It's the wearer's choice, though he or she may wish to match other leaders in the unit.

Where do I wear the Trained patch?

For shirts with pocket sleeves, the emblem is worn on the left sleeve pocket flap above the badge of office.

For shirts without pocket sleeves, the emblem is worn on the left sleeve immediately below and touching the emblem of office for which it was earned.
